Prayer of Honesty

Angi Hooker

Holy God, we remember the baptism of Jesus and hear again the words that fell upon him in that moment.

“This is my beloved one, with whom I am well pleased. Listen to this one.”

We come before you in a moment of honesty, acknowledging that it is sometimes difficult to hear that we too are your beloved children.

Help us remember that you are well pleased with us.

Remove from us anything that keeps us from believing that we are worthy of your love and grace. Repair our brokenness and our broken relationships and help us claim the promises of baptism. (Time for silent prayer)

Assurance of God’s Forgiveness
